

RECRUITMENT AND HEADHUNTING

When it comes to recruiting the best personnel options at any level, more does not mean less and we set no limits. In BSD we take care of finding the right person at any level, with the knowledge, attitudes and skills needed to ensure a lasting relationship with your company.

1. Massive Recruitment:

We attract the best qualified personnel to ensure optimum production in your company, recruiting operating personnel where high volume production is required; such as factories, manufacturing and promoters, among others.

2. Professional Recruitment:

We focus on attracting and retaining human capital with administrative, commercial and executive experience, who know, act and know how to act, all based on job skills that are essential to carry out and coordinate daily activities.

3. Headhunting:

We perform a thorough search of personalized and specific talent required for filling your company VPs.

WHAT YOU GET?

- Develop your projects smoothly, knowing that your staff will have the skills required to perform their work efficiently and productively.

- With our replacement warranty rest assured that the staff recruited by us will be replaced at no additional cost if they become removed from your company permanently during the warranty period.
- Feel carefree, because any job position you have will be filled by experts.
